

Study on the Banks of a River

Thomas Rowlandson

Sold

Description

THOMAS ROWLANDSON
London 1756-1827 London

Study on the Banks of a River

Pen and grey ink and watercolour over traces of pencil 214 x 279 mm., 8 ¼ x 11 in.

Provenance:
Lord Farnham
Dyson Perrin
Mr and Mrs William Spooner, Ashbrook, Ilkley, Yorkshire
Anonymous sale, Sotheby's, 20th November 1986, lot 50

This may be a view on the river Camel in Cornwall where Rowlandson often sketched when staying with his patron Matthew Michell in Cornwall.

it