$\left. GUY \left. \begin{array}{c} PEPPIATT \\ FINE \left. ART \right|_{\mathsf{British} \, drawings \, \text{s} \, \mathsf{watercolours}} \right. \\ \right. \$

Beddgelert Bridge

Thomas Shotter Boys

Sold

REF: 578

Description

Thomas Shotter Boys (1803-1874) Beddgelert Bridge, North Wales

Watercolour heightened with bodycolour and scratching out 32 by 45cm., 12 ½ by 17 ¾ in.

Provenance: Artist's studio sale; An Estate sale, Sotheby's, 10th October 1974, lot 8; With John Manning Gallery, London

Beddgelert is a village on the border of Carnarvonshire and Merionethshire, four miles south of Snowdon. This is likely to date from between 1859 and 1866 when Boys exhibited a number of Welsh views.