The figures in the present drawing are based on individual figures in Salvator Rosa's series of 'Figurine' etchings. The figure on the left comes from a man with a staff and a gourd (Bartsch no.75), the soldier in the right background is a reverse copy of the left hand figure in an etching of three warriors (Bartsch no.60) and the helmeted figure in the right foreground comes from Bartsch 51. The seated foreground figure comes from Bartsch 51 and other seated figures in the series.
